

SATELLITE SISTERS

Connect with the Sisters

Lian Dolan: The author of two best-selling novels—Helen of Pasadena and Elizabeth the First Wife—she’s also been a regular columnist for O, the Oprah Magazine and Working Mother and now writes monthly for Pasadena Magazine. Lian has developed several shows for television, including a half-hour sitcom for Nickelodean based on The Chaos Chronicles, the website, blog and weekly podcast she created about her life as a busy working mom. Besides podcasting and writing, Lian speaks extensively to women’s organizations, corporate groups and book clubs about her work and her life with wit and warmth. Lian lives in Pasadena, California, with her husband and two teenage sons.

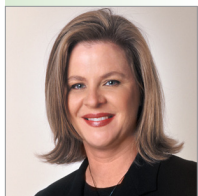

Julie Dolan: The show’s foreign correspondent, having lived and worked in Bangkok and Moscow. Julie and her husband now live in the foreign land of Dallas, Texas, but she continues to travel extensively, including “girlfriend trips” to North Korea and Uzbekistan. Her compelling storytelling is a listener favorite. Previously, she worked at and taught in a number of top universities, including UCLA, Stanford and Tulane. Julie, whose alter ego is Urban Nana, has two adult sons, two wonderful daughters-in-law and four grandchildren.

Liz Dolan: The Chief Marketing Officer for Fox International Channels (formerly the CMO of the Oprah Winfrey Network and Vice President of Global Marketing at Nike), she’s been twice named Woman of the Year by the sports industry and she’s earned spots on such lists as “100 Most Powerful Women in Sports” (Sporting News), “25 Women to Watch” (Ad Week), and “100 Most Powerful Women in Cable” (Cablefax). A single frequent-flier, she splits her time between her home in Santa Monica, California and Admiral Club Lounges around the world.

Sheila Dolan: Currently a third-grade teacher, she has worked in both the classroom and administration side of education in both public and private schools in Manhattan and LA. Her natural ability to laugh at herself and tell funny stories comes in handy when faced with 23 nine-year-olds on a daily basis. As the self-styled entertainment reporter on Satellite Sisters, she has been barred from many red carpets, but that hasn’t stopped Entertaining Sheila from reporting on the events. Sheila, a divorcee mother, lives with an abundance of beauty products in South Pasadena, California.

Monica Dolan: An RN working as a clinical research coordinator for acute stroke trials at a university hospital. Monica leads many of the health and wellness discussions on Satellite Sisters and also has her own segment entitled “Science of the Obvious,” in which she examines studies that come to such earth-shattering conclusions as: “Teens’ Brains May Not Be Ready To Make Good Decisions” and “Most Adult Women Do Not Get Enough Sleep.” Monica lives in Portland, Oregon, and whenever possible escapes to her bungalow in Bend.
